VOL. II, NO. 4

PLEASE REMEMBER CFC

The Combined Federal Campaign is drawing to a close. If you are planning to contribute and you have not done so, please see your keyman as soon as possible. The drive is scheduled to terminate by Thanksgiving.

Last year Gallaudet was able to raise over $9,500 for CFC. But this year's needs are even greater and the College is trying to meet a goal of $16,000.

Please lend a hand.

AUDIOLOGY AND SPEECH OFFERING NEW COURSES

Two experimental and three new courses will be offered for the first time this spring semester by the Department of Audiology and Speech.

1. Seminar in Audiology and Speech

A. Manuscript Reading for TV-an experimental study of the principles of presenting other people's ideas and words through the medium of simultaneous communication on TV.

B. A Study of Sign Language-an experimental study of American Sign Language starting with non-verbal communication and tracing the history of signs, sign language systems in other cultures, and problems with literary translation into English. The students will also be introduced to "baby sign formations" and conduct a class project involving the collection of dialect differences in ASL.

2. Parliamentary Procedure-rules of parliamentary procedure and their correct application to the management of campus and other organizations.

3. Group Discussion-process of thinking and problem solving in committees and small groups; methods of leading and participating in discussions and conferences.

4. Argumentation and Debate-the process of arriving at reasons and conclusions; practice in debate; projects in analysis, research, ordering of arguments and refutation.

MSSD TO PRESENT DRAMA PRODUCTION

The drama students at the Model Secondary School are preparing to present the Broadway musical, "Annie Get Your Gun," on December 8 and 9.

The cast and crew are most anxious for all of us to attend the performance at Brady Hall Chapel on the Varnum Campus, Catholic University, at 8 p.m.

Admission is 50¢ for children and $1.00 for adults.

AMONG OURSELVES

William Stokoe appeared as a panelist on WAMU-FM, American University's radio station, this past Monday discussing the topic, "Linguistics, Slang, Child Language, Language Change."...James Woodward and William Stokoe will be presenting a teacher institute, "Sign and Total Communication," at the Maryland School for the Deaf on November 17....Welcome back to Sally Wagner who will be returning to work at the Office of Demographic Studies on Monday.... We only have 32 more days to learn Gail Sullivan's new name, Gail Levo. Gail is planning to marry Howard Levo on December 16. Congratulations!

WORD FROM EEO COMMITTEE

"Affirmative action" means a positive effort on the part of the College to end any existing discrimination in employment.

YOU ARE NOT TOO LATE!

If you did not have a chance to see the fall drama production last weekend, you are still not too late.

Tickets are available for Friday and Saturday night's performances. Box office hours are from 2-5 p.m. on November 15 and from 2-8 p.m. on November 16 and 17.
